

New Director of Human Resources at IndyGo

Press Release

IndyGo announces that after a competitive search Mike Birch has been selected as the ne

Created: October 31, 2011

IndyGo announces that after a competitive search Mike Birch has been selected as the new direct

As the director and as a member of the corporation's executive team, Birch's responsibilities inclu company's human resource policies and programs related to a variety of areas including employe training and development, performance management, employee engagement and communicatio

"Mike is well deserving of this promotion. He has developed a remarkable reputation among Indy approach," said Michael Terry, president and CEO of IndyGo. "His persistence and determinatio efficient service and improve accountability."

Birch has been with IndyGo for the past 16 years in numerous roles within the organization. He b in a variety of positions including human resources and most recently as the Director of Security, well-versed in numerous areas of public transportation, active in our industry and brings valuab believes that a progressive human resource department should be "customer-service based, accou

"Our employees are the key ingredient in making this organization special. I am excited about thi there everyday serving the community," said Birch. "It's a privilege to be a part of such a great org

IndyGo has a staff of more than 460 employees, the vast majority being members of the Amalgan motivated and determined drivers to apply to the Professional Coach Operator Training Academy Driver's License (CDL) and have a High School Diploma or GED. To learn more about the Trainin employment page at IndyGo.net.

Do you recommend this press release?

Recommend

Sign Up to see what your friends recommend.

READ MORE: Labor \(/search/labor:293/v\), Management \(/search/management:2936/v\)

Like

Add New Comment

Real-time updating is paused. (Resume)

Showing 0 comments

M Subscribe by email

comments powered by DISQUS (<http://disqus.com>)